MEET OUR EMPLOYEES

WHY DO OUR EMPLOYEES ENJOY WORKING AT BMC?

WE ASKED, AND THIS IS WHAT THEY HAD TO SAY:

“At my very first interview, BMC was introduced to me as a family. Training reflects that family feel entirely — every day I walk into the office I feel surrounded by people who truly want me to succeed not only in this business, but in life. To me, a company that will support you through every facet of your life, is the one you should mold your career with.”

— Josh, Sales Development Program Trainee
(Outside Sales)

“The people I work with rock; we have a great group of people. The direction we are headed to make things more efficient, and help the company be more efficient, drives me.”

— Chris, Software Developer

“BMC has given me the training needed to turn my job into a career. The training program lets you know you are a part of something important, and not another face in the crowd. This gives you the opportunity to understand the entire sale from the quote to delivery.”

— Daniel, Sales Development Program Trainee
(Inside Sales)

“Work-family balance is very important to me, and BMC offers this balance.”

— Teresa, Software Quality Assurance Analyst

“I started working at BMC in 2005 in the window division. Best move I’ve ever made. Every day is an adventure in the office. I enjoy going to work every day with some of the greatest co-workers.”

— Danielle, Inside Sales Representative
